NO PLATFORM POLICY

Responding to speakers promoting messages of hate and intolerance

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This “No Platform Policy” aims to ensure that Equitas Academies Trust balances the right of freedom of speech against the potential use of its facilities for the promotion of extremist ideological, religious or political beliefs. In this context beliefs are considered to be extremist if they include the expression of racist or fascist views; if they incite hatred based on religious interpretation, ideology or belief; or if they promote discrimination on the grounds of political opinion, age, colour, disability, ethnic or national origin, gender, marital status, race, religion or sexual orientation.
- 1.2 This model policy is based on the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council, which will be found here. This provides further information and, in particular, Appendix 1 has guidelines on conducting research into the background of potential speakers. I can confirm that this policy will be reviewed prior the annual review date if Birmingham City Council make any updates to their model policy.

2. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1 “Extremism” is defined by the Government in the Prevent Strategy as:

“Vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also include in our definition of extremism calls for the death of members of our armed forces, whether in this country or overseas.”

New extremism definition as in Government strategy (published 14 March 2024) is:

Extremism is the promotion or advancement of an ideology^{[\[footnote 3\]](#)} based on violence, hatred or intolerance that aims to:

1. negate or destroy the fundamental rights and freedoms of others; or
2. undermine, overturn or replace the UK’s system of liberal parliamentary democracy and democratic rights’ or

3. intentionally create a permissive environment for others to achieve the results in (1) or (2).
- 2.2 Not every part of this definition has to be satisfied for a particular individual or organisation to be regarded as extremist.”
- 2.3 The Equality Act 2010 prohibits discrimination, harassment or victimisation on the basis of the “protected characteristics”. These are:
- Age;
 - Disability;
 - Gender reassignment;
 - Marriage and civil partnership;
 - Pregnancy and maternity;
 - Race;
 - Religion or belief;
 - Sex; and
 - Sexual orientation.
- 2.4 The Terrorism Act 2000 establishes a list of “proscribed organisations”. These are organisations that the Home Secretary believes are concerned in terrorism. It is an offence to belong to a proscribed organisation or to invite support for a proscribed organisation. Update; The Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisations) (Amendment) Order 2025
The Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisations) (Amendment) Order 2025 adds new entries to the list of proscribed organisations. The Order includes the addition of Palestine Action, Maniacs Murder Cult, and Russian Imperial Movement to Schedule 2. This amendment reflects the government's ongoing efforts to combat terrorism and maintain public safety.
- 2.5 This includes arranging, managing or addressing a meeting that is intended to support the activities of a proscribed organisation
- 2.6 A list of proscribed organisations and full details of the proscription offences can be found at -

3. PRINCIPLES

- 3.1 The Principles on which this policy is based are -
- a) No person may use the facilities of any Academy within the Trust to express or promote extremist ideological, religious or political views.
 - b) No person may use the facilities of any Academy within the Trust to express or promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010.

- c) Equitas Academies Trust will not allow the use of its facilities by any group or organisation that is proscribed by HM Government.

4. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

- 4.1 Equitas Academies Trust will not allow the use of any of its Academies' websites, IT facilities or information management processes to:
 - a) Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010;
 - b) Promote or glorify terrorism; or
 - c) Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.
- 4.2 The Trust has a right to exercise control over all activities on its IT facilities, including electronic communications associated with the name of the Academy Trust and use of school equipment to access external resources. This includes the right to monitor the use of school resources.

5. WRITTEN AND PRINTED COMMUNICATION

- 5.1 The Trust has the right to exercise control over the content of any written or printed material that identifies itself as associated with any Academy within the Trust. It will not allow the use of its facilities in the production of such material, or permit the use of its name, or of any identifying marks relating to the Trust in such material, if that material appears to
 - a) Promote discriminatory views in relation to the protected characteristics listed in the Equality Act 2010;
 - b) Promote or glorify terrorism; or
 - c) Promote extreme ideological, religious or political beliefs.

6. USE OF BUILDINGS, FACILITIES AND PROPERTY

- 6.1 In deciding whether to allow any group or organisation to make use of its buildings, facilities and property Equitas Academies Trust will take into account the views, policies and objectives of that group or organisation and may refuse on the grounds that these are incompatible with the policies and objectives of the Academy within the Trust. In particular, access will be refused if it appears likely that the proposed activity would promote extremist ideological, political or religious beliefs.

7. ACCOUNTABILITY

- 7.1 The Trust Board has ultimate responsibility for this policy. The implementation of the policy is the responsibility of the Head Teacher.

- 7.2 Equitas Academies Trust will use the No Platform Policy of Birmingham City Council for guidance on conducting research into the background of potential speakers, consulting other schools, other organisations, using search engines, assessing the reliability of information found, identifying risks to community cohesion etc.

8. REPORTING CONCERNS

- 8.1 The staff within each Academy in the Trust have a responsibility to act on concerns. Staff will have training on how to recognise a potential issue with the promotion of extremism in school.
- 8.2 Staff will inform the Lead DSL if they have a concern.
- 8.3 If staff have a concern with the Lead DSL, they will need to contact the HeadTeacher/CEO
- 8.4 Any staff member who has raised a concern will be given feedback on the action taken.
- 8.5 If after reporting a concern staff feel that no satisfactory action has been taken then they should escalate the concern by informing Alex Lofthouse, CEO of their concerns. If a concern needs to be escalated further, then the Trust Whistle Blowing Policy is to be used.

9. TRAINING

- 9.1 The Trust will ensure that Academy staff and Trustees receive appropriate training in the issues raised by this policy.
